INCLUDING A PERSONAL AFFIRMATION IN YOUR PROGRAM

The Harmonic Energetic Balancing Program has the unique ability to incorporate your individual affirmations into the process. These statements can be extremely powerful and may support and strengthen your intent to create maximum benefit by imparting creative energy into the process of energetic balancing.

Please write a few simple affirmations in the space provided below or email them to us at: info@wavesoflife.biz

I understand that the Harmonic Energetic Balancing Program ("HEB") is based upon the concept of harmonizing subtle body energies through the use of computer generated affirmations, prayers and other hololinguistic, energetic modalities. Any similarity of terms describing disease conditions and/or energetic imbalances, is purely coincidental. I understand that energetic prayer & affirmation balancing does not diagnose, find or remove disease, but provides energies that may assist the individual in neutralizing imbalances and stress on all levels of being. My understanding is that the HEB Program may facilitate in its participants a greater sense of well-being. I understand that this contract is binding and that there are no refunds for services provided.

I understand and freely choose to use the HEB Program to provide the service of Energetic Balancing ongoingly for the length of time which has been offered above. On a regular basis, I understand that there will be several hour pauses of the Balancing to allow my body-mind to integrate and make highest use of the balancing feedback. However, I agree that the provider will not be held responsible for power failures, acts of God or any other such incident that may temporarily interrupt service as offered. I also acknowledge that I have read and generally understand this document and the concept of Energetic Balancing, to which I am hereby subscribing. And, that the Harmonic Energetic Balancing Program process does not diagnose, treat, prescribe for disease, act as a substitute for medical treatment, or in any way promise, suggest or imply any health or medical benefits. I am hereby authorizing the use of my photograph for the process described and am applying for Energetic Balancing solely on the basis of my spiritual and religious beliefs. I declare under penalty of law that all statements I have made in this application are true.

In addition, I agree that in the event of any dispute, I will submit to binding arbitration in accord with the rules and laws within the state of origin of this agreement. And any award determined by the arbitrator shall be final, without the right to appeal. I further understand that such binding arbitration may deprive me of various rights that I otherwise might have in a legal action, including without limitation, the right to my local jurisdiction and venue, the right to a jury trial, the right to appeal, and full discovery rights. In the event that my waiver of venue and jurisdiction is found to be unenforceable, I then agree to binding arbitration in my local jurisdiction. I have read, understand and agree with the entire request form, and my signature signifies my complete acceptance of this agreement.

Elements of a Photo for the HEB:

We ask participants to remove jewelry and stand before a white background with nothing else in the photo. The fact is that even a pinkie—as a fractal of one’s energy field—would actually work. Nonetheless, preferred is this: include a good portion of the body but it’s actually more valuable to be able to see the face and the eyes reasonably clearly. Avoid having other people in the photo. A Polaroid photo is preferred, however not required.

Why a Log? We Ask & Encourage Participants To Keep A Daily Log

DAILY LOG

The single most important tool to measure your energetic progress is the daily log. It is a method that will allow you to track how you feel on a day-to-day basis. It is easy to remember the days when you were feeling below par and forget the days when you were on top of the world. Typically on days when you are working on energetic imbalances you can feel down, tired, energetically drained. During the time between imbalances, you can feel really great. It is normal to experience the roller coaster of ups and downs on your path to energetic balancing. This tends to be most apparent within the first few months. Interestingly, during this time, many have also reported a certain inner stillness, quiet, joy and center. It is subtle, as all energetic balancing is, and no less real.

The days of the week are along the left margin of the log sheet. Next, you will see the “Self Assessment” column. Here are listed the numbers one to ten. On this scale, one represents a “low”. The ten represents a “high”, and a five would represent an “average” day of actually feeling “balanced”. We recommend that you circle the appropriate number at the end of the day. This scale should represent the overall sense of the day, not just what happened ten minutes prior to filling out the log sheet. It should also be representative of your opinion, not that of your spouse, friends or children. Yet, their feedback is also great value as well. Often others see the shifts in us before or better than we can ourselves. The Log will give you a good look at how your month has been tracking energetically.

The next column is the “Comments” section of the log. Here you may enter a quick narrative about the day. You may enter how you feel physically, emotionally, or mentally. It is also a good place to enter what you call/perceive as “positive” or “negative” events. It may be interesting to also note if what you used to think of as “negative” you now see as “positive”. If you have been detoxing and experiencing general body aches you might write, “general body aches.” If you have experienced a day of great mental clarity, enter “great mental clarity”. It is also a good place to enter any intuitive experiences you may have had during the day or any vivid or lucid dreams you may have had during the night. Remember that how you responded to an event is perhaps more important than the event itself. For example, if you have a disagreement with your boss, your entry may read, "Argument with boss, didn't lose my cool this time."

Keep in mind, the "Daily Log" represents a thumbnail sketch of YOU. You may prefer to do a more detailed journal as well. We have found that daily journaling is an excellent method to track your energetic balancing, but also your growth as an individual. And, it's interesting to ask, "What is the difference?" The Log offers you an opportunity for reflection on your personal history for your own growth. Remember it should be YOURS. It is your tool, not a publication to compare yourself to others who may be balancing. You are a unique individual and how you progress will be different from someone else. Your inner guidance will determine what you need to work on at any given moment. Please also send us a monthly summation of some of your insights and experiences for so to share with others who are also experiencing the HEB Program or considering it. It helps to clarify first for you, then for others, what occurs through this process.

Daily Log (see below): The Daily Log with its Self-Assessment Scale and place for comments should provide you with a good picture of your overall well-being.

We wish you BLESSINGS on your journey of energetic transformation!

May all your energy be harmonious!

Harmonic Energetic Technologies' MISSION STATEMENT

In this undertaking, we look to Spirit for guidance and protection. We seek to use the gifts of Spirit in a harmonious way to help facilitate the process of maintaining our wellness of Being and to support the individual being in harmony with the forces of Nature. Here we refer to those subtle and vital forces that are life affirming, rejuvenating, regenerating, and re-harmonizing at all levels of one's Self, helping to eliminate or reduce the energetic effects of stressful aberrations that have taken place in our fields.

We use the Harmonic Energetic Balancing Program as our energetic/vibrational modality, which can be used in conjunction with other traditional complementary healing modalities. What we offer is non-imposing on the individual's Being. Consciousness yet provides energetic patterns in an inspirational and life-affirming way, all of which one may utilize by choice, in a conscious/unconscious manner.
